ADJUTANT-GENERAL NOT YET SELECTED

Gov. Cutler Has Not Named Man to Succeed Joseph Geoghegan, Resigned.

Although the resignation of Adjt.-Gen. loseph Geoghegan was to have gone into effect Wednesday, Gov. Cutler has not named a successor, and as Mr. Geoghegan does not wish to embarrass the Governor, he will retain office until his uccessor is appainted.

Two Names Are Mentioned.

It has been determined to hold a meetng Sunday for the purpose of deciding the matter, and names will be submitted to the officers. If there is a name that sults the Governor in the list the matter will probably be settled at once. Col. H. M. H. Lund and Col. A. B. Kessler are mentioned for the vacancy.

May Transfer Troop A.

There is some talk of transferring troop A. of this city, to Bountiful, transferring the membership here to an infantry company. Company D, of this city, is being mustered out and placed in a new company, to be called company. C which will soon come into existence, and company by will be the name of a new company to be organized at Pleasant Grove.

Advertising Past and Present.

When P. T. Barnum brought Jenny Lind to this country, fifty years ago, he pand her $18,000 for eighteen concerts and found his venture a decided-ly profitable one.

That was advertising then and good advertising. Today, hard headed business houses are in closer touch with conditions. They realize that the wis-cst use of their money is in spreading the merits of their products through the medium of printer's ink. Here they get not merely the full worth of every dollar, but a permanent asset in the impression made on people's minds and the interest and desire awakened.

the interest and desire awakened.
When a great firm like Armour &
Company, the sole licensees and manufacturers of Pond's Extract Sonp, spend all Jenny Lind's concerts' cost on a single dose of printer's ink, in opening their big campaign for "The Soap That Soothes," it is pretty good evidence of the recognition of the true use of publicity and its resulting profits, present and future.

Eighteen thousand dollars for a mar-vellous voice, which enriched only the singer and whose returns passed with her going and $18,000 for a single use of printer's ink—that is today's advertising as compared with the methods

ARMOUR & COMPANY'S advertis-ing is placed by the MAHIN ADVER-TISING CO., Chicago.
